DreamAuthentics (www.DreamAuthentics.com) lets dads everywhere turn their homes into entertainment destinations. The Katana, Dream Authentics™ newest addition to their lineup of the completely customizable arcade cabinets, is an arcade cabinet, jukebox, computer and DVD player in one! Loaded with nearly 200 video games, the Katana will make Dad feel like he™ in an authentic arcade from the 80™s. The Katana fits on a table top, allowing Dad to enjoy arcade classics without dedicating an entire room to a full-size cabinet. The Katana is customizable inside and out just use DreamAuthentics online configurator to create Dad™ personal Katana. DreamAuthentics™ exclusive jukebox feature comes standard, replicating the look and feel of a commercial music jukebox while incorporating the technology of MP3 software. The Katana features a PC based game engine so you can play any PC game. Plus, Dad can surf the net or watch a DVD. This is Dad™ ultimate gadget!
