Customized cabinets

• The gadget: Dream Authentics arcade cabinet

• What it is: Dream Authentics, an Indianapolis-based company, offers custom-made arcade cabinets that can be fully customized and enable up to four players to compete at a time, with as many as 5,000 current and retro video games available. The system is compatible with all PC-based games and software emulators, and can be hooked up to your Xbox or PlayStation.

• Additional feature: Each system also plays DVDs and audio files, has hookups for cable-TV and Internet access, a custom computer platform, and an arcade audio system with subwoofer.

• Price: $3,495 to $5,995

• Web site: www.dreamauthentics.com

Fireman 2.0

Need to burn DVDs fast? Check out this software, a package that allows for fast burning at both 4.7 gigabytes and 8.5 gigabytes.

Fireman 2.0 allows a user to drag and drop files into a folder for quick backup. It also creates and backs up digital movies, and makes ISO files - a file that contains the complete image of a disc - that can be stored on a hard drive, enabling quick duplication.

• www.honestech.com, $39.99
